

FUSION AWD
RATED #1
OVER CAMRY
& ACCORD¹

Race-Infused Appeal ▲

Taking cues from the NASCAR® Fusion, the available Sport Appearance Package turns the grille black-chrome, frames fog lamps in body-color bezels, and adds a unique rear spoiler. 18" machined-aluminum wheels with painted pockets complement the sport-tuned suspension. Get red-splashed cloth seat inserts, or go for the optional leather-trimmed seating and red leather inlays.

Nothing else resembles it. Nothing else responds like it. FUSION.

Car enthusiasts in L.A. and D.C. deemed Fusion – with available All-Wheel Drive – tops in Performance versus Camry and Accord; same holds true in the Handling and Styling categories.² Going places? Nothing else will do: Turn to Ford Fusion.

First-in-Class³ AWD Available

Here's the lowdown on All-Wheel Drive (AWD): It continuously monitors – at a rate of 100 times per second – vehicle speed, throttle input and steering angle to exactly distribute torque. Fusion's AWD system can even direct that torque side to side on each axle, allowing you to continue if only one wheel has grip. Moving forward to the next stage in life couldn't be any better.

¹In head-to-head comparison tests for 2007 models.

²By special invitation from Road & Track (in Los Angeles) and Car and Driver (in Washington, D.C.). 2007 model year.

³Midsize Sedan class starting under $21,000. Excludes Mazda6.

Fusion competes in NASCAR,[®] marking the first time since 1968 that an all-new Ford model debuted in showrooms and on the track at the same time. It builds on a legacy nearing 600 Sprint Cup wins. In fact, Red Byron took the checkered flag in the first-ever NASCAR-sanctioned race, piloting a modified Ford over the sands of the Daytona Beach Road Course in 1948; there were 14,000 fans in attendance. Today, more than 75 million Americans pride themselves on being NASCAR fans. Ford Racing's Carl Edwards (pictured left in winning, high-speed form) loves the crowd roar nearly as much as the stock, production version of his #99 racer: "The Fusion is awesome. It's easy to drive. It's a fun car."

New Vehicle Limited Warranty

We want your Ford Fusion ownership experience to be the best it can be. So under this warranty, your new vehicle comes with 3-year/36,000-mile Bumper-to-Bumper Coverage, 5-year/60,000-mile Powertrain Warranty Coverage, 5-year/50,000-mile Safety Restraint Coverage, and 5-year/unlimited-mile Corrosion (Perforation) Coverage — all with no deductible. Please ask your Ford Dealer for a copy of this limited warranty.

For more assurance: The 5-year/60,000-mile powertrain limited warranty is fully transferable, has no deductible, and provides you with an additional 2 years or 24,000 miles of coverage — on select components, including the engine and transmission — beyond the standard 3-year/36,000-mile Bumper-to-Bumper Coverage. Roadside Assistance is extended to 5 years or 60,000 miles, so you have the security of knowing that help may be only a phone call away should you run out of fuel, lock yourself out of the vehicle, or need towing. Your Ford Dealer can provide complete details on all of these advantages.
