
San Francisco Chronicle|SFGate.com 50th Annual International Auto Show Provides Entertainment For The Entire Family At An Affordable Price

SAN FRANCISCO, CA (October 16, 2007) - Looking for family entertainment at an affordable price? The San Francisco Chronicle|SFGate.com 50th Annual International Auto Show, presented by AutoTrader.com, November 22 - December 2 at the Moscone Convention Center, is the place to be.

Young or old, male or female, car buff or just looking to buy a new vehicle, the International Auto Show provides entertainment for every member of the family at an affordable price -- with tickets just $8 for adults while children 12-years and under free when accompanied by an adult.

Thinking about buying a new car in the next 12 months? The Auto Show is the perfect place to see and compare the 2008 makes, models and prices from over 40 major manufacturers, all under one roof. For auto enthusiasts, in addition to the new model cars, SUV's, trucks and vans, the Auto Show will feature hybrid and alternative fuel vehicles, the Extreme AutoFest, classic hot rods, racecars and provide a glimpse into the future with prototypes and concept cars. For kids of all ages, there are simulators, slot car tracks, interactive exhibits and an extensive auto accessory area with after market products, model cars and much more.

Supported by the California Motor Car Dealers Association, the Auto Show will feature more than 800 vehicles filling the 1.2 million sq. ft. Moscone Center. The International Auto Show is the premier auto exposition in northern California and the only auto show held regionally that lures the dazzling high-tech displays from the world's major manufacturers. It is the largest exhibition of any kind in the greater Bay Area and the second largest auto show in the western United States.
