#1175, Porsche 356A based Beutler from 1958. This is a 4-seater prototyp made in winter 1958/59. The car was owned by a swiss businessman until late 60's. It went to USA and was in storage

until 1994. Then the car came back to Germany and is owned by Uwe Biegner.

#1182, Porsche 356A based Beutler from 1959. This is the first and only Beutler-Porsche Cabriolet. It was a special order by the Count of Württemberg. After many years in Germany the car was also sold to USA and went through many hands. Today it is restored and owned by Stanley Gold from California.

#1193-30, Porsche 356B based Beutler from 1960. The car shows many changes compared to the earlier cars. Now, Beutler began to use more Porsche 356 parts. This car went to USA when new. Today it is owned by Jim Watson from Tennessee.

#1193-31, Porsche 356B based Beutler from 1960. This is the sistercar to #1193-30. Both cars are made at the same time at Beutler in Thun. The car still has its original paint and most of the original interior. It is also owned by Jim Watson.

#1201, Porsche 356B based Beutler from 1960. This car was a special order for Bill Jones from Texas. After several owners the car was purchased by Henry Walker during the 1992 Porsche Parade in San Diego. After finishing the restoration the car was shown at many Porsche events at the west coast.

#1213 + 1214, Porsche 356B based Beutler's from 1961. The cars show some slight differences to the prior cars and were delivered to Brumos of Jacksonville/Florida in 1961. The remain of the cars is unknown. There are rumors that at least one car is still in Florida.
