

Lotus 35th Anniversary Commemorative Edition Type 72D, 2008

The 35th Anniversary Commemorative Edition Type 72D. An exclusive Collectible Edition model noting the Formula One design, the Lotus 72. The Lotus 72 was the vehicle that the legendary Emerson Fittipaldi won five of eleven races in 1972, becoming the youngest champion in F1 history.

Each 72D is sequentially numbered, individually signed by both Clive Chapman (son of Lotus Founder Colin Chapman) and Michael J. Kimberley (Group Lotus CEO) and specially certified with documentation of the vehicle's legacy.

A Type 72D commemorative driving helmet with display case is included with each vehicle. This collectible edition will be offered in the very limited quantity of just 50 units worldwide.

Type 72D Collector's Limited Edition MSRP: $58,610 USD | $73,985 CDN
