

Good driving qualities and durability, easy handling, economic advantages, pleasing appearance with interior furnishings and colours to match are some of the features which put the 1964 model of Moskvitch — 403 in front of all other cars of its class. The strengthened individual front-springs, the improved steering gear with the dished steering wheel, the modernized gear transmission system, the suspended clutch and brake pedals, the hydraulic coupling arrangement, the wheel brakes with automatic control — all these improvements go to make the 1964 model of Moskvitch — 403 the ideal car, that will satisfy the taste and other demands of even the most exacting and pretentious of buyers. We feel sure that the 1964 Moskvitch model will please you.